Cookies are files saved on your phone, tablet or computer when you visit a website.

We use cookies to collect and store information about how you use the Gulab Sorkh Foundation website, by which we mean any page with gulabsorkh.org in the URL.

We do not use cookies that help with our communication and marketing or those that remember your settings.

This page has a brief explanation of each type of cookie we use.

Cookie settings

We use 2 types of cookie. You can choose which cookies you're happy for us to use.

Strictly necessary cookies

These essential cookies do things like remember your progress through a form (for example sending a query to us).

They always need to be on.

Cookies that measure website use

We use analytical cookies to measure how you use gulabsorkh.org.

These cookies collect information about:

- how you got to these sites
- the pages you visit and how long you spend on each page
- what you click on while you're visiting these sites

We do not allow analytical cookies to use or share the data about how you use these sites.
